SIXTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

“Always be ready to give an explanation to anyone who asks you for a reason for your hope...” 1Peter: 3:15

(Some food for thought from the AA Daily Meditation Book)

I HAVE HOPE. THAT MAGIC THING I HAD LOST OR MISPLACED...

The future looks dark no more... I try to let the future take care of itself. The future will be made up of todays and todays, stretching out as short as now and as long as eternity. Hope is justified by many right nows, by the righteousness of the present. Nothing can happen to me that God does not will for me. I can hope for the best, as long as I have what I have and it is good.
